The Kentucky Department of Health has put the Death Records on line from 1911 to present. When you search use "METAPHONE" rather than "exact" spelling. That way you will pick up mispellings. Have fun !

23. JOHN3 MCHENRY III (JOHN2, JAMES ROSS WILEY PATERNAL1 ANCESTORS) was born Abt. 1790 in Ireland?6. He married MARGARET (?) WHITE.

Notes for JOHN MCHENRY III: Information on this familiy comes from: Augusta D. Eller wrote to Ms Eller 5/26/97

Notes for MARGARET (?) WHITE: Source of Margaret White (or at least THIS Magaret) is from a WFT pedigree #4735, Vol. 7, submitter:

Augusta D. Eller wrote to Ms Eller 5/26/97
32530 Harper
St. Clair Shores, MI 48082

Does not give Margaret White's parents, but this seems to match the family of James McHenry & Rebecca White. Other reliable sources say that Margaret White married WILLIAM DOWLER. Note that the current file form Ms Eller says Jane McHenry, dau of this Margaret married Thomas Dowler.

Children of JOHN MCHENRY and MARGARET WHITE are:

70. i. JOHN4 MCHENRY IV, b. Abt. 1812; d. Bef. 1880.

1. ii. GEORGE MCHENRY, b. 1814, VA; d. September 12, 1883, Marshall Co., WV.

2. iii. JANE MCHENRY, b. May 31, 1819, Ohio Co., WV; d. January 02, 1899, Marshall Co., WV.

24. SOPHRONIA3 MOORE (JACOB2, JAMES ROSS WILEY PATERNAL1 ANCESTORS) was born January 13, 1813. She married JAMES NEWMAN.

Child of SOPHRONIA MOORE and JAMES NEWMAN is:

i. FRANCES ADELINE4 NEWMAN, b. December 16, 1859, Proctor, Wetzel Co.,
WV; m. ALBERT ROSS MCHENRY, July 30, 1883, New Martinsville, Wetzel Co., WV.

Notes for ALBERT ROSS MCHENRY: From Myrtle Wiley, dau of Edwin F. Wiley & Melissa McHenry, sister of Albert McHenry: (This was Myrtle's uncle) - "..Mother called him "Ab," or "Abner."
Albert Ross McHenry also being researched by:
(line proceeding from Montie Ausburn McHenry, son of Albert Ross McHenry)

I think I gave you this one:

Dan'l Moore, Ohio Co. W. Va.
Will - 1842 Book 3 p. 432

Since that John More age 79 is at the home of Thomas More age 40, he is probably his father. In this case, I would say that Thomas is probably a cousin of my group, but how? This is another John the same age as John who died in Ohio, so would have to be a son of John More Sr.'s brother, whoever he was. Our little history, says that John Sr. was the immigrant, but I think they are missing some generations. If you will look on the group sheet I sent you, John Sr. would have been age 58 when John was born, and Sophia Cake would have been age 49. Not a likely possibility. John Jr. was supposed to have been the youngest son, but note that the births of Henry was placed at about 1774, and Samuel at 1776, and yet in the history I have, it says that Samuel More was with George Rogers Clark. The Henry and Samuel More that died in Miami Co. were likely the fellows born in the 1770's, but there's no way they could have been in the Rev. War. I think you can follow me here. So, there had to be a generation between John born 1714, and John born 1772.

I will keep this information for future use, and probably can figure out who some of them descend from, but would need the earlier census to do so. I have seen the Horn Papers, but that man made too many mistakes in his history. The land records are good though.

Thanks very much for all of this. What can I send you? Please indicate if there is something I may have that you may want.

SAMUEL MOORE TAVERN

One of the first taverns was set up in 1683 in the Province of East Jersey by Samuel Moore, of Woodbridge, who served as Town Clerk for twenty years and chosen deputy five times. Moore's Tavern occupied the site where Dr. Ellis B. Freeman's drug store stood in 1873, which would fix the location at the corner of Green Street and Rahway Avenue. At the tavern, in the year 1730, the first cup of tea in the State was drunk by a group of ladies. Among them was Mrs. Van Cortlandt, Mrs. Campyon and her daughter, who became Mrs. Cutter. Later, the Tavern became a general store, with Jeremiah TenEyck as proprietor. During the Civil War, it was the Post Office, where the daughter of Jeremiah TenEyck served as the first telegrapher in this section. It then became the location of the fashionable millinery shop where the elite of the town had their bonnets made. Later the butcher shops of Turner Brothers and Mr. A. L. Huber were located here.

THE ROWLAND HOUSE

On the northwest corner of Green Street stood the old Rowland House, which was at one time an Inn. This location was commonly referred to by the townspeople as Rowland's Corner. It was a pleasant old-fashioned house, the larger part consisting of two stories and the smaller a story and a half, with small windows tucked under the eaves. This was the taproom. It is said that the stage coaches drove up and turned around at the corner of the Inn. This is perhaps why Green Street is so wide at this point. Philip Brown was the innkeeper. There is a story told about William Dunlap, of Perth Amboy, and the Inn. William Dunlap was the most important figure in the early dramatic history of America. When he was sixteen years of age, he painted a portrait of Washington, which became famous. Dunlap is said to have walked to Woodbridge to take the stage at Rowland's Corner. When he reached the Inn, the stage had gone and no one seemed to be awake. He entered the Inn and, finding no one around, took a candle, went upstairs, found a vacant room, and went to bed.

Leroy "Roy" Moore

Birth: Jul. 6, 1878
Pikes Peak
Brown County
Indiana, USA

Death: unknown
Sacramento
Sacramento County
California, USA

Roy was the son of Phillip Moore and Emaline Ward. His parents were married in Barton Co., Kansas (March 3, 1879), after Roy's birth; and were soon parted. Roy's brother, Jesse Moore, was born in Indiana in 1881, but their father deserted the family about that time. Their mother remarried in 1886, reporting that she was then widowed, although Phillip Moore's death has never been verified. There is no known record of a divorce. Roy and Jesse Moore did not live with their mother after her marriage to Dan Keller.

Roy was residing in Chicago in 1920, with a wife, May (or Mayme) and their son, Earl Leroy Moore, 1903-1959. There may have been another child, Georgia Moore, mentioned in family notes, although never verified on other records.

Roy registered for military draft in WWI and WWII, supplying his date of birth and birthplace. In 1918, he was residing with his wife Mayme, at 724 Grace St., in Chicago, working as a salesman. In 1942, he registered in Sacramento, California, and reported his brother, Jesse Moore of Columbus, Indiana, as his next of kin.

A Social Security "life claim" for Leroy Moore was filed in Sacramento on Jan. 10, 1946, but the claim does not infer that he had died. His actual date of death and place of burial are not known at this writing.

Jesse Louis Moore

Birth: Feb. 6, 1881
Newbern
Bartholomew County
Indiana, USA

Death: Apr. 7, 1956
Bradenton
Manatee County
Florida, USA

Jesse Moore and his brother Leroy were the sons of Emaline Ward and her third husband, Phillip Moore. Phillip and Emaline were married only briefly, and very little is known about him. After Emaline married Daniel Keller in 1886, these boys lived elsewhere. Leroy Moore was residing in Chicago with a wife and son in 1920, and eventually lived at Sacramento, California.

Jesse went to Indianapolis as a boy of about 12, alone, traveling on the inter-urban railcar. He was taken in by a German family and lived several years with them, attending school and working in the family's grocery business. As an adult, he returned to Columbus, and worked as a rural mail carrier. Jesse Moore married Elva Bertine Bush June 3, 1906, in Bartholomew Co., Indiana.

MOORE

"Colonial Governor of South Carolina"

The old Irish Moores are O'Mordha, from the word "mordha" meaning "stately or noble."

THE MOORE name is numerous in Ireland, holding 20th place in the list of commonest names. It is difficult to say what proportion of these are Gaelic Irish origin and what proportion are actually of English extraction, for also in England the Moore name is common, ranking 39th in their list.

The English Moore (or More) derives from the Anglo-Saxon "mor" meaning "marsh or wasteland." It was first applied as a local name to a dweller in or near a moor or a resident of the town of Moore in Cheshire. William de (of) More was listed on the Domesday Book of Suffolk County in the year 1086.

ANOTHER source of the Moore surname is the Old French "maur." "Maur" was first used as a nickname for either "a Moor" or someone "swarthy as a Moor." A Johannes filius More was listed in the Records of the Templars at Lincolnshire in 1185. Johannes must have belonged to the Order of Knights Templars, whose dashing military exploits earned them great fame throughout the Crusades.

Many distinguished men, both English and Irish, have borne the Moore surname. Thomas Moore (1779-1852) was an Irish poet and a close friend and biographer of Byron. His book of "Irish Melodies" includes such favorites as "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Oft in the Stilly Night."

Sir Thomas More (1478-1535) was an English statesman and humanist. He was called to the bar and rose in the judiciary to the office of lord chancellor of England, being the first layman to hold this position. His refusal to recognize King Henry VIII's divorce from Catherine of Aragon led to his imprisonment and final decapitation. In 1935, Sir Thomas More was canonized by the Roman Catholic Church.

In America, a James Moore is listed among the early settlers of Charleston, S.C. He was elected Governor of that state in the year 1700.

O'Meara, with the aid of friends, was able to attend the Brown County Free Fair in October, but a short time later was taken to the home of his sister where he had since lived. He failed very rapidly after Thanksgiving and suffered more paralysis.

Mrs. Sobocinski says, in her letter, that her brother was very patient and gentle throughout all his suffering and enjoyed all the letters, cards, and messages sent to him by Nashville friends.

Mr. O'Meara was a landscape gardener and the many trees, flowers, and shrubbery that he planted here will serve as a monument for him, one who was respected by all.

He was laid to rest in Quidnessett cemetery near Providence.

FEB. 6, 1947

ROSE O'MEARA

Mrs. Rose O'Meara, wife of Herbert G. O'Meara, died at her home in Bedford last Friday. Mr. O'Meara is a landscape gardener and for the past few years has been spending the summer months here, working at his trade. He has flower gardens on Greasy creek.

Mrs. O'Meara was widely known as a social service worker and for a number of years she was secretary for the Bedford Community Chest. She was a member of the board of children's guardians, Gillen Post, American Legion, and the Business and Professional Women's Club. She was a member of the Christian Science church and served as reader in the Bedford church. She was a graduate of the Bedford high school and Indiana University, where she taught in the commerce department. She entered nurse's training and served in the World War, continuing for many years in service at government hospitals.

The husband; mother, Josephine Francis Malott; two sisters, Miss Bonnie Malott, Palo Alto, Cal., and Mrs. George Crocker, Omaha, Nebraska and one brother, Herman Malott, Evanston Illinois, survive.

Treviac and one great grandchild, Kenneth Lee Cox of Helmsburg.

[illegible] was a Charter Member of the [illegible]burg Cahpter No. 449 Order of Eastern Star, and in her daily life exemplified the teachings of Him who set his Star in the East.

Mrs. Brummet was a person who had the happy knack of making friends and keeping them. She always had a smile and a kindly word for everyone. Honesty, kindness, charity, and love for her fellowman were her watchwords and she exemplified their meaning to the best of her ability. She consoled those who were sad, she rejoiced with those who were happy, and gave of her sympathy to those in trouble. Long will the virtues she so truly practiced live in the hearts of those who came under her influence. As a mother and wife she will be missed in the home; as a friend and counselor she will be missed in the community that has known her so long. AUG. 29, 1946

Christopher C. Brummet

As a result of an attack of pneumonia and after a short illness Christopher C. Brummet, more commonly known as "Chris," died at his home [illegible] miles west of Nashville Christmas Day, at the age of 71 years, 2 months and 9 days.

Mr. Brummet was born at the home where he died and where he had lived during his life time. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brummet, his mother's maiden name being Amanda Harris. He was well known throughout Brown county, and was elected clerk of the county and served from Jan. 1, 1916 to Dec. 31, 1919.

Mr. Brummet never married and he and his brother, Felix Brummet, lived alone on their little farm for many years. Surviving are the brother and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Stephens, of Franklin.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. J. E. deGafferelly, pastor of the Nashville Christian church, on Tuesday, Dec. 28th, at the Bond Funeral Home in Nashville. Burial was in the Brummet cemetery, west of Nashville. JAN. 6, 1944

David Brummet

David Brummet, one of Nashville's well known and popular young men, died in the Bloomington hospital Wednesday evening about eight o'clock, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Last Friday he contracted tonsilitis but was feeling fairly well until Sunday when pneumonia developed. His condition grew worse hourly and yesterday afternoon he was taken to the hospital.

David was about 22 years of age and was a young man who had many friends: in fact, all who knew him were his friends. He was jovial and liked to joke his friends, but never intentionally offended. He was born in this county, few miles west of Nashville. His father, Joseph Brummet, died a few months ago. He is survived by his mother and two sisters, Misses Mildred and Martha. At this time funeral arrangements have not been completed. More of the life of this prominent young man will appear in our next issue.

AUG. 22, 1935

Funeral services for David Brummet, who died in the Bloomington hospital on Wednesday night of last week, and whose death was briefly mentioned in these columns last week, were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Christian church and were attended by one of the largest crowds at a funeral here for many months. The funeral sermon was delivered by Dr. deGafferelly.

Appropriate hymns were rendered by a male quartet composed of George Allen Turner, William Jones, Robert Bowden and William McGrayel, accompanied by Miss Ruth Tilton at the piano. Interment was in Greenlawn cemetery. Pallbearers were Robert Schoen, Raymond King, Ralph Wright, William White, Carl Stine and Alfred Mohr. The flower bearers were Marianne Bessire, Dorothy Schrougham, Gertrude Crawford, Mabel Williamson, Mary Ferguson, Marie Poling, Thomas Hutchison, Paul Snyder, John Adams, Horace Turner, Harold King and Robert Cowens.

David was a son of Joseph and Emma Brummet and was born on Jackson creek, this county, June 26, 1912; his age at time of death being twenty-three years, one month and twenty-five days. He attended the Jackson creek grade school and was a student of the Nashville high school two years. His father and his sister, Mary Sherrill, preceded him in death.

Surviving are the mother; two sisters, Mildred Brummet and Martha Brummet, and a little niece, Elizabeth Ellen Sherrill.

Nothing on earth is changed; just another friend and fine young citizen has gone on. AUG. 29, 1935

DENNIS BRUMMETT
Item of July 6, 1916
as reprinted July 4, 1935

Relatives and friends were shocked when a telegram was received announcing that Dennis Brummett, son of Solomon Brummet, four miles west of Nashville, was killed by lightning in Benton county. He lived on a farm near Atkinson and was hauling stone for a new road. He was driving a fine team of horses valued at $500 and a good, heavy wagon. The lightning bolt not only killed Brummet and his team and tore his wagon to bits, but it tore a hole in the earth four feet deep and eight feet in diameter. People flocked to the scene for two days to see the evidence of the violence of the lightning bolt. Brummet's clothing was torn from his body by the lightning, the largest piece remaining being just a fragment of his rain coat. He and his family had planned to visit his parents in Brown county on July 4. Funeral services were conducted at the home of his parents, west of Nashville, by Elder J. W. Street. Burial was in the Brummet cemetery.

Donald Brummett

Death called one of the younger citizens of Brown county when Donald Brummett, age twenty years, ten months and nineteen days, departed this life last Saturday, May 21. For seven months he was bedfast with heart disease, but bore his suffering patiently and he passed on peacefully.

Don, as he was known by his many friends, both young and old, was a prominent young man in the Bean Blossom community. His father, Edward Brummett, preceded him in death last year. Those left to mourn are his mother, Mrs. Ethel Brummett; one brother, Carl; two sisters, Catherine and Elizabeth and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Bean Blossom last Monday in charge of Rev. W. C. Chafin. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery. MAY 26, 1938

DULCENA BRUMMET
Item of Jan. 27, 1916
as reprinted Feb. 1, 1935

Mrs. Dulcena Brummet, 70 years of age, died at the home of her son-in-law, John Day, 4 miles west of Nashville, death resulting from intestinal trouble. Her husband, Langston Brummet, died three weeks previous.

E. Catherine Brummett

Edna Catherine Brummett, wife of Bean Blossom businessman Carl Brummett, died Thursday, March 10, at Winona Memorial Hospital in Indianapolis after an illness of about one year. She was 48 years old.

Mrs. Brummett was born Aug. 16, 1928, in Johnson County, the daughter of Earl and Lucille Betts Richardson.

She lived in Brown County most of her life and was married Dec. 16, 1952, in services at Morgantown.

She assisted her husband in operating his businesses, including the Brummett service station at Bean Blossom.

Survivors, in addition to the husband, include three sons, Loran White of Route 3 Morgantown, Wayne White of Mooresville and John Brummett at home; two daughters, Debbie Cosand and Melinda Hunsucker, both of Mooresville; her parents, who live in Worthington; a brother, Earl Richardson Jr. of Waverly; a sister, Ruth Doan of Indianapolis, and four grandchildren.

The body was cremated at her previous request with plans for burial beside her deceased sister in Monroe County. MAR. 16, 1977

EDWARD L. BRUMMET

Edward L. Brummet, a prominent and respected citizen, died at his home near Beon Blossom last Thursday at the age of sixty-seven years, two months and twelve days. He was a son of Harmon and Alwilda Brummet and was born near Bean Blossom.

He was married to Ethel Macy, of Indianapolis, in 1913. To them five children were born, four of whom survive—Carl H., Don, Katherine and Elizabeth. He is also survived by his wife and one brother, William E. Brummet, of near Bean Blossom. A large circle of friends join with his family and brother in mourning his passing.

Mr. Brummet received his common school education in the schools of Jackson township, this county. His college education was taken at Valparaiso university. For many years he was a teacher in the schools of Brown and adjoining counties. He was a conscientious teacher, always giving his best for the children and the community he served. Many of his pupils owe their success to the incentive inspired by his sincere teaching.

He was a pubic spirited man, never hesitating to take his stand on questions relating to the welfare of the community. He was honest and sincere in his dealings with all men, trying to do to others as he would have them do unto him. To his family he was loyal and true, doing in his way whatever he could for their comfort and welfare.

Today, for Edward Brummet, Life's school has ended. He stands before the Master Teacher, bearing in his hand the things garnered here. May they be such as to win for him that welcome plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Death reported.

Morton Carmichael Dies Suddenly at His Home

Morton Carmichael, 70 years of age, died very suddenly at his home at Christiansburg Tuesday at 1 p. m.

He hadn't been very well for some time, but was feeling as well as usual and had been working out-side that morning. He came in the house and his wife, who was in an adjoining room, heard him fall. She found him lying on the floor and immediately ran for help, but when they returned he was found dead.

Mr. Carmichael was a retired Methodist minister. Following his retirement, the family moved to a farm near Christiansburg. At the time of his death he was a member of the Christiansburg Methodist church.

Besides the wife he is survived by nine children: Miss Esther Carmichael, Mrs. Howard Coles and Robert Carmichael, of Columbus; Mrs. Marvin Townson, of Evansville; Paul Carmichael, of the state of Washington; Mrs. John Cross, of California; Marvin Carmichael, of Madison; Mrs. Hezekiah Waggoner, of Freetown; and Merrill Carmichael, who is in the Army, is stationed on the west coast. He also leaves seven grandchildren, one sister, one half-brother, and two half-sisters.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the Christiansburg church. Burial will be in the church cemetery but will probably take place at a later date, awaiting the arrival of children from a distance.

Obituary

Clarence Elmer Moore, son of Ell and Matilda Moore, was born in Bartholomew county Dec. 29, 1891 and departed this life Sept. 25. 1942 at the age of 50 years, 9 months and 26 days.

He was united in marriage to Alverta Mae Clark Sept. 29, 1918 and to this union three children were born. The only surviving child is Peggy Sue.

He united with the Christian church of Nashville in 1928 and in Jan. 1942 he moved his membership to the Harmony Baptist church at New Bellsville, where he attended as often as his health would permit.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Nashville and the Red Men lodge at New Bellsville.

During World War No. 1 he gave his services to his country, and he also served two enlistments in the regular army prior to the war.

Besides his widow and daughter, he leaves to mourn his departure his father, Ell Moore, of New Bellsville; four brothers, William Moore of Sedorus, Ill., Walter Moore of Tuscola, Ill., Leonard Moore of Franklin and Charles Moore of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Carl Neal of Columbus and Mrs. James Hendricks of Brown county; also several nephews, nieces, and cousins, and many friends and neighbors.

During his illness he never complained but bore his suffering with patience and Christian fortitude.

OCT. 1, 1942

Sherman T. Moore

Sherman T. Moore, age 79, passed away this morning in the house where he was born and had spent his entire life. He was born, near New Bellsville, November 11, 1866, the son of Eli and Ellen Schultz Moore, who had come here from Ohio and pursued the occupation of farming. Mr. Moore devoted his life to farming, ike them, and never was away from his farm for any length of time. Dur- his long life in the New Bellsville community he was held in high esteem and a place of much prominence.

Mr. Moore was one of eleven children, all of whom but one brother and sister are dead. He was twice married. In 1904 he married Martha Bradley but this marriage was dissolved in 1921. October 29, 1923, he was maried to Emma Elizabeth Brand. One child, who died in infancy was born to this union. Eli Moore, of Van Buren township, is a brother of the departed man and the late Clarence "Nub" Moore, a former deputy sheriff in this county, was a nephew of Mr. Moore.

Mr. Moore was a member of the Red Men Lodge at New Bellsville. Funeral services will be held at the church there Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and burial will be made in the adjoining cemetery. 9-26-1946

OBITUARY

Johnathan Moore was born February 16, 1859, and departed this life April 2, 1930; age 71 years 1 month and 17 days. He leaves to mourn his death five sons, Bert, of New Orleans, La.; Arthur, of Bloomington; Earl, of this county. One brother, John and one sister, Emily Dewar, both of Bloomington. Also a host of other relatives and friends.

In his early life he made his confession to God and since that time had led a close life serving the lord. During his sickness he would call upon the brethern to sing and pray as they visited him from time to time.

He was always very patient, praying to God through his suffering and his last testimony was that he knew he was prepared to meet God when he should call him home.

ARTIE MOORE

REMEMBER?

First Military Funeral

On Saturday, Sept. 22, 1917, Artie Moore and 19 other young men of Brown county assembled on the court house lawn, listened to a farewell address, bade farewell to relatives and friends, and in flag-bedecked autos left for training camps to prepare for service in World War I. On Sunday, May 19, 1921, the remains of Artie Moore, the first Brown county boy to give his life in that great war, were conveyed to the Lanam cemetery in a flag-draped casket and consigned to their last resting place.

During the great battle at Chateau Thierry, where the Americans distinguished themselves by stopping the German drive on Paris, Mr. Moore was killed July 20, 1918, when a shell from one of the enemy's big guns practically tore his body to shreds. His remains were hurriedly buried near the battle line, but later moved to another cemetery in France, where they remained until shipped to the States.

The funeral and burial were in charge of the American Legion and was the first military funeral held in the country. Mr. Moore was a brother of the late Mrs. T. D. Calvin.

MARCH 23, 1944

VONNIE MOORE

Aged 32 years, wife of Artie Moore, died Sunday morning at 6:45 o'clock at the home of her uncle, David McGill, in Indpls., after a lingering illness. The family formerly resided 2½ miles west of Nashville. The deceased was a dau. of Richard McGill. The deceased was brought by train to Helmsburg, then to her resting place in Lanam Cemetery. Br. Co. HENRY MOORE

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Nashville Christian church for Henry Moore, who passed away at the Bartholomew County Hospital Tuesday, following an illness of pneumonia. Burial will be in Green Lawn cemetery.

Mr. Moore was one the county's most respected citizens, and he will be sadly missed by many people, especially by his children and members of the Christian church, where he so regularly attended.

Obituary

Henry Moore, son of Michael and Sarah Moore, was born in Noble county, Ohio, January 13, 1854, and departed this life January 3, 1939, at the age of 84 years, 11 months and 20 days.

He came to this county with his mother when a lad of ten years of age, his father being a soldier in the Civil War at this time. He was married to Nannie Rose when quite a young man. To this union was born two children who died in infancy, also death took his wife.

On Dec. 13, 1885 he was married to Catherine Seitz, who passed away October 14, 1915. To this union was born five children, Mrs. Olive Snyder and Harold Moore, of this county, Mrs. G. D. Weddle, of near Franklin, and Courtney Moore, of Columbus. Noah died in infancy.

He was active in church affairs and attended regularly when able to do so. He was always interested in the moral uplife of his community and always took his stand for the right. With his passing the community loses a valuable citizen, a good neighbor and his children a good father.

JAN. 5. 1939

GEORGE E. WEDDLE

George D. Weddle died at the Johnson County Hospital last Tuesday at 6:45 p.m. at the age of 84. He had been ill for two weeks prior to his death.

Born in Brown County June 6, 1883, he was the son of William Jackson and Mary Lucetta Weddle. He was the last of seven children.

Besides a term as deputy sheriff, Mr. Weddle spent the greater part of his life as a farmer. He lived in the Trafalgar area for most of his life before moving to Franklin in 1940.

He was married to Monta Moore in Brown County in 1910, and the couple had three children. Mrs. Weddle preceded him in death Nov. 5, 1943.

He is survived by two sons, Elmo of Franklin and Dallas of Greenwood; a daughter, Mrs. Robert McGinnis of Franklin. Also surviving are eight grandchildren.

He was a brother of the late A. E. (Lon) Weddle and Monte Weddle of Nashville.

Funeral services were Friday at the Vandivier-Parsley Funeral Home.

Rev. William Valentine was in charge of the service, and burial was at Greenlawn Cemetery.

Oct. 26, 1967

MONTA WEDDLE

Mrs. Monta Weddle, 56, passed away at 7:45 o'clock Friday evening in Methodist hospital in Indianapolis, following an illness of complications of diseases. While she had been seriously ill for only a short time, she had been in very poor health for several months. (cont'd next column)

Mrs. Weddle was born in Brown county Nov. 29, 1887, a daughter of the late Henry and Katherine Moore. On Dec. 25, 1910, she was united in marriage to George Weddle of this county. Following their marriage, they resided on a farm in Hamblen township for several years, but later moved to a farm in Johnson county, near Trafalgar, where they lived for many years. Only a few years ago, they sold their farm and moved to a small place three miles north of Franklin where the family now resides. She was an active member of the Methodist church.

Besides the husband she is survived by two sons, both of whom are in the army. Dallas is now serving overseas and Elmo is stationed at Trenton, New Jersey; a daughter, Mrs. Mary K. McGinnis, lives at home. She also leaves one sister and two brothers, Mrs. Olive Snyder and Harold Moore of Brown county and Courtney Moore of Indianapolis.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Franklin Methodist church and interment was in the city cemetery. The large crowd of friends that attended the services and the many beautiful floral offerings were a proof of the high esteem in which she was held.

Among those attending the funeral from this county were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Snyder, Mrs. Cecil Seitz, Mrs. Ollie Kritzer, Mrs. Emmons Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Weddle, Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Weddle and daughter Sara Lou, Mrs. Dolly Weddle and Grover David.

NOV. 11. 1943.

Louie Snyder

Funeral services for Louis Snyder, 75, husband of Olive Snyder, were held Tuesday, at the Nashville Christian Church with Rev. Edward Simon conducting. Pallbearers were Loren and Keith Moore, Dale Moberly, Don Clark, Don Percifield and Fred Taylor.

Mr. Snyder was born December 28, 1885 in Brown County and passed away October 8, in the Bloomington Hospital after an illness of two years. He was the son of Charles and Mary (Gratton) Snyder.

On December 24, 1907 he was united in marriage to Miss Olive Moore, in Nashville. He and Mrs. Snyder made their home in the vicinity of Nashville and on December 24, 1957, celebrated their 50th anniversary. To this union were born two sons, both living.

Louie, as he was known to all his friends, was a man of wit and humor. Always a good word and with a mind so full of history of the county, that anyone wanting information, had only to ask and the words began to flow.

He was a member of the Nashville Christian Church and had been a member of the Board for forty-five years. He was a member of the Nashville Lodge F.&A.M. No. 135 and on March 30, 1957 received a fifty-year membership pin. He was a member of the Brown County Historical Society.

Louie taught school in Brown County for thirty years and served as attendance officer for thirteen years. It has been said that he could tell you the history of all the students and many of the parents, whom he also had taught along the school's highway. He and his son, Paul, has raised thoroughbred Angus cattle for the past several years.

Survivors are his wife, two sons, Raymond of Camden, Arkansas, and Paul of Nashville, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Oct. 12, 1961

Harold Moore

Harold Moore of Route 2, Nashville died Thursday in the Veterans Hospital, Indianapolis after an illness of one year.

Born in Brown County Jan. 1, 1894 to Henry and Catherine Seitz Moore, he was 76 years old.

He was a member of the Nashville Christian Church, Nashville Masonic Lodge No. 135, Brown County Barracks World War I Veterans, and a Veteran of World War I.

December 23, 1917 he married Flora Bright in Nashville and she survives. Four sons also survive: Merril L. Moore, 2950 25th Street, Columbus; E. [illegible] Moore, 3335 Woodland Parkway, Columbus; Loren R. Moore, Nashville; and H. Ray Moore, Route 5, Oak Lake, Columbus.

One brother, Courtney Moore, Indianapolis; and one sister, Mrs. Olive Snyder of Nashville; as well as ten grandchildren also survive.

Funeral service was Sund[illegible] at the Bond Funeral Home w[illegible] Don Whetstine, pastor of the Nashville Christian Church officiating. Burial was in the Greenlawn Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Chester Fleetwood, James Schrougham, Fred Lorenz, Richard Smith, Rex Thompson Jr., Eugene Seitz and Elihu Bond. Honorary pallbearers were Garland Parmer, Ward Miller, Ferd Miller, Howard DeGolyer and Clarence Aynes.

The Veterans of the World War I Organization gave the graveside rites. OCT. 1, 1970

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDeyt "Rody" Rodeheaver

the conchoid. Let the parallel to BA through E cut the conchoid in F. Then BF is one of the lines trisecting ABC.

Proof: Let BF cut DE in G. Let H be the midpoint of GF and draw EH. Then EH = GH = HF.

Now $\angle ABF = \angle EFH = \angle HEF$ and

$$\angle HBE = \angle EHB = \angle EFH + \angle HEF = 2\angle HEF = 2\angle ABF$$

$$\therefore \angle ABF = \frac{1}{3}\angle ABE$$

The construction may be made without drawing other points of the conchoid than F by marking the distance GF = 2BE on a straight edge and then placing it so that G will lie on DE and F on the parallel to AB through E, while at the same time the straight edge passes through B.

Exercises. Practice trisecting angles by this last method.

The method does not work for right angles. Why? How can a right angle be trisected?

How does one proceed to trisect an obtuse angle?

Devise a mechanism which would draw conchoids.

Art. 31. Transformation to Rectangular Coordinates.

It is an easy matter to change from polar to rectangular coordinates or vice versa if the origin coincides with the pole and the positive end of the x-axis with the initial line.

The student should show from the figure that $$\left.\begin{aligned} x &= \rho\cos\theta \\ y &= \rho\sin\theta \end{aligned}\right\} \quad (XV)$$

To change from rectangular to polar coordinates

and that

$$\rho = \sqrt{x^2 + y^2}, \quad \theta = \arctan\frac{y}{x}$$

(To change from polar to rectangular coordinates.)

(Show that these hold also when P is in the other quadrants or on the axes)

There is an element of ambiguity in the last formula but if the signs

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

Rody

THE MOORE FAMILY

JOHN MORE, a Dutchman?, lived in Maryland, and died there about 1754. His will, dated October 17, 1749, was entered for probate September 25, 1754, in Prince George's County, Maryland. He owned land known as 'Moore's Industry' which he willed to his wife ELIZABETH, for her lifetime. After her death, it was to be divided evenly "share and share alike" between his three sons: Mordecai, Thomas and Phillip. His personal estate was willed in like manner, except "One feather bed and furniture, and one cow and calf" were to go to his daughter Darkis. The three named sons were to pay to John's son Daniel, the sum of 3 pounds current money. Elizabeth was named executor, and the will was witnessed by: Samuel Waters, John Holland and Jacob Holland, Jr.

According to available records, the MORE spelling of this name was used until about 1840, when John's great grandchildren begun using the present spelling of MOORE. Deeds (copy in possession of writer) signed by his grandson Michael and his wife Catherina, were signed in the Dutch language. No further records have been found of the daughter Darkis, or of sons Mordecai and Daniel, but a letter, written by Opha Moore, a Clerk in the County Commissioner's office of Franklin County, Columbus, Ohio, on March 28, 1927, in which he states that he has done considerable research, and traced our line back to the above mentioned John, also states, "Thomas and Phillip had moved to the Shenendoah Valley prior to 1742. Thomas remained there, near New Market, Virginia, and the 7th generation now lives there and owns the old homestead."

PHILLIP MORE, son of John and Elizabeth, died in 1762, on 'South Branch of the Patomac' in the present ~~Hampshire~~ Hardy County, West Virginia. He had four sons and three daughters: Phillip, jr., Michael, John, Conrad, Marya, Margaret and Susanna. Opha Moore's letter reads,"...Phillip More, some time prior to 1748, moved across the mountains to the South Branch of the Potomac, and lived there until his death in 1762."

Mrs. Fred Horsley, Jr., sent me copies of two land grants, copied from SIMS INDEX TO LAND GRANTS IN WEST VIRGINIA (1952), the volume borrowed from: National Genealogical Society Library, Washington, D. C., of which Mrs. Horsley is a member. The first Grant is dated August 7, 1749, Deed for 238 acres of land upon South Fork, Wappacomo, Number 15, reads in part: "The Right Honorable Lord Fairfax, Baron of Cameron in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, Proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia... for good cause for and in consideration of the Composition to me paid and for the annual Rent hereafter reserved I have given granted and confirmed ...do give grant and confirm unto Philip Moore of the County of Augusta, a certain Tract....o. 15...on the So Fork of the So Branch of Potomack River...two hundred thirty eight acres of Land... to Philip Moore his heirs assigns for ever. (He) paying to me...yearly and every year... Fee rent of Shilling Sterling Money for every fifty acres of Land hereby granted...or unpaid by the space of two whole years...as if this Grant had never passed." The second Grant is dated the 6th day of December 1762, and is for 373 acres of land, (Lot number 20) both grants were signed: Fairfax.

Conrad More son of Phillip, never married. He lived in Hardy County (W) Virginia. He left a will dated December 1, 1799. It was entered for probate April 9, 1800, (Record Book 1, Page 177) The will, (copy in possession of writer) reads in part: " I give all the Remainder of my Estate after my just debts and funeral charges are paid to the Children of My three Brothers and three Sisters in Equal Sixths that is to say one Sixth part to my Brother Phillip Moore Children, and one Sixth to John Moore Children, and one part to Michal Moores Children and one part to Sister Marya Children formerly of the Name of Cat and one part to my Sister Margrets Children, and one Sixth part to my Sister Susanna Children if any Otherwise to herself." The will was signed by Conrad in the presente of: Able Seymour, Anthony Baker and Daniel Tevebough. Conrad More owned the land on which the County Seat of Hardy County, Moorefield, was built.

MICHAEL MOORE, according to Opha Moore's letter, died in 1812, in Monongalia County, (W) Virginia. Michael married CATHARINE ___, and three of their children were: Michael Jr., Jacob and Phillip, (continuing generation). (For many years Moore family records listed Alonzo Moore of Maryland, as the father of Phillip. My own first booklet on this family history carries this error, we have since proved that our ancestor Phillip was son of the above mentioned Michael Moore. Reference has been located of an Alonzo of Maryland, father of a Phillip who moved to Pennsylvania. The name of Phillip, appears in records of several Moore families for three generationsin the 18th Century. Lists indicate that these Moores named most of their children for their Grandparents, Aunts and Uncles.)

Michael Moore moved to Monongalia County, (W) Virginia, about 1785. He had a Grant of 400 acres of land on Slaters Run (now Jake's Run) dated June 27, 1791, (Book 4, Page 184). An earlier grant was dated August 24, 1785, for land in the same area. On September 16, 1800, Michael and his wife Catharine,(This name is spelled Catherina on copies of some deeds in posession of writer.) sold 50 acres of land to Joseph Moyer and his wife Nance, (believed to be their daughter.) The land was designated as "Part of a large tract granted to said Michael, on June 27, 1791, by Beverly Randolph, Governor of Virginia." I have copies of several deeds, from the Monongalia County Court House, listing sale of land by and to several members of this Moore family. Many of them refer to the Grants Michael had recieved, and one dated October 7, 1842, reads in part: "... of four hundred acre tract of land which was granted by patent to Michael Moore, the Father of the aforesaid Michael and Phillip Moore, and bearing the date of August 1785."

Michael Moore is mentioned in different family records as having been a soldier in the Revolutionary War, but military records needed to prove this line, can not be located at the National Archives. Michael's farm lies near the present Pennsylvania line, and this area was once a part of Pennsylvania. Census lists show that Phillip Moore, son of Michael,was born in the state of Pennsylvania: believed to be on this farm, now Monongalia County, West Virginia.

The land was designated as "Part of a large tract granted to said Michael, on June 27, 1791, by Beverly Randolph, Governor of Virginia." I have copies of several deeds, from the Monongalia County Court House, listing sale of land by and to several members of this Moore family. Many of them refer to the Grants Michael had recieved, and one dated October 7, 1842, reads in part: "... of four hundred acre tract of land which was granted by patent to Michael Moore, the Father of the aforesaid Michael and Phillip Moore, and bearing the date of August 1785."

Michael Moore is mentioned in different family records as having been a soldier in the Revolutionary War, but military records needed to prove this line, can not be located at the National Archives. Michael's farm lies near the present Pennsylvania line, and this area was once a part of Pennsylvania. Census lists show that Phillip Moore, son of Michael,was born in the state of Pennsylvania: believed to be on this farm, now Monongalia County, West Virginia.

Conrad More son of Phillip, never married. He lived in Hardy County (W) Virginia. He left a will dated December 1, 1799. It was entered for probate April 9, 1800, (Record Book 1, Page 177) The will, (copy in possession of writer) reads in part: " I give all the Remainder of my Estate after my just debts and funeral charges are paid to the Children of My three Brothers and three Sisters in Equal Sixths that is to say one Sixth part to my Brother Phillip Moore Children, and one Sixth to John Moore Children, and one part to Michal Moores Children and one part to Sister Marya Children formerly of the Name of Cat and one part to my Sister Margrets Children, and one Sixth part to my Sister Susanna Children if any Otherwise to herself." The will was signed by Conrad in the presente of: Able Seymour, Anthony Baker and Daniel Tevebough. Conrad More owned the land on which the County Seat of Hardy County, Moorefield, was built.

MICHAEL MOORE, according to Opha Moore's letter, died in 1812, in Monongalia County, (W) Virginia. Michael married CATHARINE ___, and three of their children were: Michael Jr., Jacob and Phillip, (continuing generation). (For many years Moore family records listed Alonzo Moore of Maryland, as the father of Phillip. My own first booklet on this family history carries this error, we have since proved that our ancestor Phillip was son of the above mentioned Michael Moore. Reference has been located of an Alonzo of Maryland, father of a Phillip who moved to Pennsylvania. The name of Phillip, appears in records of several Moore families for three generationsin the 18th Century. Lists indicate that these Moores named most of their children for their Grandparents, Aunts and Uncles.)

Michael Moore moved to Monongalia County, (W) Virginia, about 1785. He had a Grant of 400 acres of land on Slaters Run (now Jake's Run) dated June 27, 1791, (Book 4, Page 184). An earlier grant was dated August 24, 1785, for land in the same area. On September 16, 1800, Michael and his wife Catharine,(This name is spelled Catherina on copies of some deeds in posession of writer.) sold 50 acres of land to Joseph Moyer and his wife Nance, (believed to be their daughter.) The land was designated as "Part of a large tract granted to said Michael, on June 27, 1791, by Beverly Randolph, Governor of Virginia." I have copies of several deeds, from the Monongalia County Court House, listing sale of land by and to several members of this Moore family. Many of them refer to the Grants Michael had recieved, and one dated October 7, 1842, reads in part: "... of four hundred acre tract of land which was granted by patent to Michael Moore, the Father of the aforesaid Michael and Phillip Moore, and bearing the date of August 1785."

THE MOORE FAMILY

JOHN MORE, a Dutchman?, lived in Maryland, and died there about 1754. His will, dated October 17, 1749, was entered for probate September 25, 1754, in Prince George's County, Maryland. He owned land known as 'Moore's Industry' which he willed to his wife ELIZABETH, for her lifetime. After her death, it was to be divided evenly "share and share alike" between his three sons: Mordecai, Thomas and Phillip. His personal estate was willed in like manner, except "One feather bed and furniture, and one cow and calf" were to go to his daughter Darkis. The three named sons were to pay to John's son Daniel, the sum of 3 pounds current money. Elizabeth was named executor, and the will was witnessed by: Samuel Waters, John Holland and Jacob Holland, Jr.

According to available records, the MORE spelling of this name was used until about 1840, when John's great grandchildren begun using the present spelling of MOORE. Deeds (copy in possession of writer) signed by his grandson Michael and his wife Catherina, were signed in the Dutch language. No further records have been found of the daughter Darkis, or of sons Mordecai and Daniel, but a letter, written by Opha Moore, a Clerk in the County Commissioner's office of Franklin County, Columbus, Ohio, on March 28, 1927, in which he states that he has done considerable research, and traced our line back to the above mentioned John, also states, "Thomas and Phillip had moved to the Shenendoah Valley prior to 1742. Thomas remained there, near New Market, Virginia, and the 7th generation now lives there and owns the old homestead."

PHILLIP MORE, son of John and Elizabeth, died in 1762, on 'South Branch of the Patomac' in the present ~~Hampshire~~ Hampshire County, West Virginia. He had four sons and three daughters: Phillip, Jr., Michael, John, Conrad, Marya, Margaret and Susanna. Opha Moore's letter reads,"...Phillip More, some time prior to 1748, moved across the mountains to the South Branch of the Potomac, and lived there until his death in 1762."

Mrs. Fred Horsley, Jr., sent me copies of two land grants, copied from GENEALOGICAL INDEX TO LAND GRANTS IN WEST VIRGINIA (1952), the volume borrowed from National Genealogical Society Library, Washington, D. C., of which Mrs. Horsley is a member. The first Grant is dated August 7, 1749, Deed for 238 acres of land upon South Fork, Wappacomo, Number 15, reads in part: "The Right Honorable Lord Fairfax, Baron of Cameron in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, Proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia... for good cause for and in consideration of the Composition to me paid and for the annual Rent hereafter reserved I have given granted and confirmed ...do give grant and confirm unto Philip Moore of the County of Augusta, a certain Tract....o. 15...on the So Fork of the So Branch of Potomack River...two hundred thirty eight acres of Land... to Philip Moore his heirs assigns for ever. (He) paying to me...yearly and every year... Fee rent of Shilling Sterling Money for every fifty acres of Land hereby granted...or unpaid by the space of two whole years...as if this Grant had never passed." The second Grant is dated the 6th day of December 1762, and is for 373 acres of land, (Lot number 20) both grants were signed: Fairfax.

Dear Shirley,

I got your name and address from a "Roots" entry in the May/June issue of the Genealogical Helper. Your entry thus:

Saloma More married 1836 Perry, Ohio.

I can't help but wonder if you have the same More group as I do. This name isn't usually spelled this way. In fact, frequently in the public records it is not.

My group of More: John More Sr. born about 1714. To Augusta, Virginia. Married Sophiah Cake probably in New Jersey. They had 14 children, 13 boys and 1 girl. I only have the names of 3 of the boys. John Jr., Henry and Samuel.

John Jr. More married Sarah Gandy probably in what is now W. V., but no person has found the marriage. They lived in Monongalia Co. until about 1806 when they went to Ohio. The little More history I have says to Miami Co., but I don't believe they were in that county so early as I just was at Troy, Ohio and didn't find much in the public records. So, they lived somewhere else in Ohio previous 1820 I think. I think they were married about 1795 as I find them 1799 in Monongalia, Va. They had a number of children, which I have in my history. My line was their daughter Sophia who was born 1799 and married John Beard about 1822. I can't find this marriage either. She and John went to Darke Co., Ohio 1825 where they had entered land at the Pique Land Office. In 1835 they went to Carroll Co., Indiana to live. I know about them after that. I was born only a few miles from their homestead.

I would like to know more about your More. Probably we have the same family. Enclosed is a stamped envelope for your handy use. I have quite a bit of More information and maybe I have some to exchange with you. I would like to know what you possess. Thanks very much.

Until I hear from you, I am

Very truly yours,

Ethel

MYRTIE ETHEL LUCAS

Mrs. Myrtie Ethel Lucas, wife of Waltz Lucas, died while being taken to a hospital just two hours after receiving a fall at her home in Van Buren township Monday. Mrs. Lucas had been ill for about three weeks and about noon walked to the back porch where she fell, breaking her neck and fracturing her skull. Dr. Frank Tilton, of Nashville, was called and gave medical aid before she was started to a hospital. Just how she fell was not known.

Mrs. Lucas was born April 18, 1891, the daughter of John and Alice (Downey) Moore, both of whom are now deceased. Her entire life was spent in Brown county. On October 28, 1907, she was married to Waltz Lucas at Pikes Peak and their entire wedded life was spent in Van Buren township. She had been affiliated with the United Brethern church and at the time of her death her age was 55 years, 1 month and 12 days.

Surviving, besides the husband, are four sons and three daughters: George W. Lucas, of Van Buren township; Dewey O. Lucas at home; John F. Lucas, of Van Buren township; Grover E. Lucas, of Columbus; Mrs. Mary Harden, of Helmsburg; Mrs. Goldie Weekly and Mrs. Martha L. Wells, of Columbus. Other survivors are two half-brothers, Lewis Henderson, of Van Buren township and Ephriam Henderson, of Indianapolis, and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services are being held today (Thursday) at 2 p. m. at New Bellsville with Rev. J. W. Hendricks in charge. Burial is in the New Bellsville cemetery. MAY 23, 1946

GEORGE M. LUCAS

OBITUARY

Johnathan Moore was born February 16, 1859, and departed this life April 2, 1930; age 71 years 1 month and 17 days. He leaves to mourn his death five sons, Bert, of New Orleans, La.; Arthur, of Bloomington; Earl, of this county. One brother, John and one sister, Emily Dewar, both of Bloomington. Also a host of other relatives and friends.

In his early life he made his confession to God and since that time had led a close life serving the lord. During his sickness he would call upon the brethern to sing and pray as they visited him from time to time.

He was always very patient, praying to God through his suffering and his last testimony was that he knew he was prepared to meet God when he should call him home.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

Rody

MARTHA PING
Item of Feb. 11, 1909
as reprinted Feb. 9, 1934

Martha Ping, pioneer lady of Van Buren township, died at her home in Pikes Peak after a lingering illness of paralysis . She left several grown children.

Mary Ping

Mrs. Mary E. Ping, 78, wife of Morris Ping, died at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lilly Hall, near Ogilville. Although she was a lifelong resident of Ohio township, Bartholomew county, Mrs. Ping was well known around New Bellsville.

Mrs. Ping was born March 16, 1868, and she resided in Ohio township as a girl and also after she and Mr. Ping were married 52 years ago. She was a member of the Ohio Chapel church.

Besides her husband and daughter, she is survived by two sons, Alvin Ging, of route 7, Columbus, and Elmer Ping, of Mishawaka; two brothers, Frank Romine of South Bend and John , of Columbus, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Ohio Chapel church near Ogilville. Burial was made in the adjoining cemetery. Sept. 19, 1946

Morris Ping, 81, Dies at Columbus

Morris Ping, 81, formerly of this county, passed away Wednesday, June 1, at the Redmon Nursing Home in Columbus, after an illness of two years. He had been a farmer in the Ogilville community.

Mr. Ping was born in this county April 30, 1868, to David and Susan Cross Ping. In 1894, he was married to the late Mary Romine

Surviving are his sons, Elmer Ping of Mishawaka and Alvin Ping of Columbus Route 7; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Hall of Ogilville; a brother, Leonard Ping of Auburn, and a sister, Mrs. Amanda Skinner of Springfield, Illionis.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at Ohio Chapel, near Ogilville. Rev. James Hendricks of New Bellsville officiated and burial was at Ohio Chapel Cemetery. JUNE 9, 1949

MRS. MYRTLE PING

Mrs. Myrtle Ping, forty-one years of age, wife of Ralph Ping, died last Thursday in the Methodist hospital at Indianapolis, following a major operation Saturday. She was a daughter of William H. and Mary Newmister, both now deceased. Her father was formerly Recorder of Brown county. Her home was at East Columbus. She was widely known because of her activities in 4—H club work.

Mrs. Ping is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mary Ping of Columbus and Ola D. Ping, of Columbus; four sisters, Mrs. Anna Ralphy, Indianapolis; Mrs. Ida Wheeler, Bloomington; Nadine Newmister, Columbus and Helena Newmister, Bloomington ,and four brothers, Charles, Melvin, Walter and Hershel.

Funeral services were conducted at Columbus at the Flanigan funeral home, and were in charge of the pastor of the Christian church in that city. Interment was in Garland Brook cemetery. SEPT. 8, 1933

Otto Ping

Otto Ping of Route 6, Columbus died on Tuesday, October 28 at the Lutheran Community Nursing Home in Seymour.

He had been ill for three months and was 92 at the time of death.

Ping was born in Brown County on April 3, 1883 to Logan and Emaline Henderson Ping.

On June 19, 1910, he was married to Clara Ewers, who survives.

Ping's occupation was farming, but he also raised chickens, did photography, and had owned a canning factory.

He was a member of the Harmony Baptist Church at New Bellsville, and had lived in Brown County all his life.

Other survivors include a son, Bryce Ping and a daughter, B. Irene Sluss, both of Route 2 Brownstown; a brother, Earl Ping of La Crosse, Kansas; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Services were held Friday at 10 a.m. at the Bond Funeral Home with the Rev. Richard Stolle presiding.

Burial was at the Christiansburg Cemetery. Nov. 5, 1975

SARAH CONNER PING

Mrs. Sarah Conner Ping 68, wife of Jasper Ping, of East Columbus, died at 6 p. m. Friday evening at the Bartholomew County Hospital after a long illness. (cont'd next column)

Mrs. Ping spent most of her life in Columbus and was well known. Her first husband, who was Luke Conner of Elizabethtown, died a number of years ago. She was married two years ago to Mr. Ping, who formerly lived in Brown county.

Surviving are the husband, a stepson, Ralph Ping, two step-daughters, Mrs. Estella Weichman and Mrs. Hazel Brickey, of East Columbus.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Hege and Flanigan funeral home. Burial took place in the Springer cemetery. AUG. 11, 1938

Mrs. THEODORE PING

Died yesterday at her home, 1043 S. Whitcomb, Indpls.; resident of Indpls. for 41 yrs. Surv. are her husband, 2 daus., Mrs. Marcella Newman & Mrs. Helen Nester and a son, Wm. Ping; also 12 grandch. & 10 great-grandch. Moore & Kirk Funeral service with burial in Friends' Cem., at Bridgeport.
(undated Indpls. newspaper)

THOMAS PING

"Word of his death was rec'd here on Saturday." He was a resident of Perryville. He was an uncle of Mrs. Virgil Greathouse, Loren Ping, Mrs. Herschel Taylor & Mrs. Fern Pruitt, all of Brown County.
Br. Co. DEMOCRAT, May 26, 1955

THOMAS R. PING

Funeral services for Thomas R. Ping, 70, were held Wednesday (today) at the Reed Funeral Home in Columbus, with burial in Garland Brook Cemetery, there. Rev. Ralph Jewell conducted the rites.

Mr. Ping was born in Brown County, the son of Jasper and Rilla (King) Ping. He was married to the former Miss Myrtle Newmister, who died in August 1933. He later married Miss Ruth Dawson in 1935. He has lived in Columbus for the past forty years.

He died of a heart attack while driving his car near his home. He was a member of the Grandview United Brethren Church and a member of the Columbus Grange.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ruth Ping; two daughters, Mrs. Carl Kabrich of Edinburg, and Mrs. Ray Patterson of California; two sisters, Mrs. Hazel Brickey and Mrs. Carl Weichman, both of Columbus. Four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become more like our little friend than I'd like to admit. I suppose I'd like to think that I have a lot of faith, but I must confess there are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed with the climb. When I reach those points in the work, God always reminds me of some basic principles:

1. It's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."
2. He never calls us to do a task without providing everything we need to complete the task.
3. God raises up people to join hands and give to the cause.
4. God's timing is always perfect and it's set to an eternal clock.

This year the mountains before us are larger than ever. The Father is faithful and His principles are sure. I'm trusting Him for what lies ahead in the fall of '84'. The In Touch shows some of those challenges and I'll be updating you in the coming months.

To move into the fall confidently and to keep from falling behind financially we need to have a strong August (typically a weak-giving month). Perhaps you would consider a special gift to Youth for Christ this month. Join hands and help us climb strongly into the autumn.

We have so many people who so faithfully support our work of sharing Christ with young people. Thanks again for your prayers and gifts.

Yours for Young Lives,

LaDoyt "Rody" Rodeheaver

Friends:

As I look ahead I sometimes become like our little friend than I'd like mit. I suppose I'd like to think that e a lot of faith, but I must confess are times when I'm a bit overwhelmed the climb. When I reach those points e work, God always reminds me of some principles:

t's His work not mine - "He's In Charge."

e never calls us to do a task without roviding everything we need to complete he task.

od raises up people to join hands and ive to the cause.

od's timing is always perfect and it's et to an eternal clock.

e larger than ever. The Father is trusting Him for what lies ahead ome of those challenges and I'll be to keep from falling behind finan-pically a weak-giving month). Perhaps for Christ this month. Join hands

Mary Lucretia King died Apr. 18, 1928. She was born Apr. 18, 1885 (sic, 1855) at Bellsville, Br. Co., dau. of Eli T. & Ellen Moore. She married in 1874 to George I. King. They moved to Nashville in 1886. they had 3 children, Elmer & Allie King & Mrs. Opal Martin. H/M King were proprietors of the Nashville House for about 13 years.
Br. Co. DEMOCRAT, Apr. 26, 1928

Allie King

Allie King, 67, former Brown county resident, was found dead in bed at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott, where he had been rooming.

Dr. Marvin R. Davis, Bartholomew county coroner, stated that death apparently was due to a heart attack. It is said that Mr. King had suffered several heart attacks in the last few years and complained of not feeling well about noon Monday when he went to his room to lie down. Not being able to awaken him by knocking on his door Tuesday morning, Mrs. Elliott investigated and found him dead.

Mr. King was born November 16, 1876, at Nashville and went to Columbus in 1900.

Surviving are a son and daughter, Raymond King and Mrs. W. D. Platter of Louisville; a sister, Mrs. Opal K. Martin of Kansas City, Ark., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this Thursday morning at the Hathaway Funeral Home in Columbus and burial was at Bellsville.

GEORGE I. KING DIES IN MASONIC HOME

Was a Lifelong Resident of Brown County—Served Two Terms as County Sheriff

Another of Brown county's good citizens has answered the summons of death. After a life of eighty-one years, well lived, in Brown county, George Ivan King is dead. He succumbed at the Masonic Home in Franklin Tuesday morning.

Mr. King was born near New Bellsville, in Van Buren township. He was a son of George and Mary King, pioneer residents of the county.

Several years ago he served two terms as sheriff of Brown county. He operated a livery stable here for a few years and for several years was in the hotel business, operating the old Nashville Hotel.

Mr. King was a member of the Methodist church. He was a man of many good qualities and one who numbered his friends by the scores. Mr. King lived an active and useful life on the theory that it is better to wear out than to rust out.

He was a member of the K. of P., Red Men, Odd Fellows and Masonic orders.

For the last few years Mr. King had been in failing health and in September of last year he went to live at the Masonic Home. His wife, Mary King, died at the family home here April 18, 1928, and his oldest son, Elmer King, died at his home here November 21, 1929. He is survived by one son, Allie

King, of Columbus, and one daughter, Mrs. Scott Martin, of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Funeral services will be held at the New Harmony Baptist church at New Bellsville tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. K. D. Vandeventer, of the Nashville Methodist church, will deliver the sermon. Burial will be in the New Bellsville cemetery, and the services will be in charge of the F. & A. M., of Nashville.

MAY 28, 1931

MRS. EMMA KING

Mrs. Emma King, a former resident of Columbus, died last Saturday at Santa Rosa hospital at San Antonio, Texas, where she had been living the past year with a son.

Funeral services were at San Antonio and graveside services will be at Garland Brook cemetery in Columbus later.

(cont'd next page)

Mrs. King was born in Nashville, Sept. 30, 1880, the daughter of Sampson and Lucinda David. She was the widow of Allie King.

A member of the Christian church, Mrs. King resided with her daughter for several years after moving from Columbus and before moving to her son's home.

Surviving with her son are a daughter, Mrs. William Platter of Decatur, Ga.; a sister, Mrs. Doll Weddle of Nashville; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by three brothers and three sisters. JAN. 16. 1969

I have just started to research this side of our family. My Ollie supposedly was killed in a hunting accident before the birth of his son William Ollie. I have also heard that he was illegitimit but have no proof. I am assuming that Jane Hampton was married to Ollie Moore, but may not have been. His great grandson told me that they lived in Brown Co., around Nashville. I have also heard that Ollie was originally from North Carolina. I have no dates to go by other that William was born in 1890s. William Ollie married Pearl Reed, also from Brown Co. These could be tied to your family somehow, but we don't have alot to go on. Thanks for the information.

Oscar Moore

m. Alpha McGuire

Mrs. ALPHA MOORE

Death came to Mrs. Alpha Moore, long time resident of Indiana and native of Brown County. Mrs. Moore was born at Belmont, Feb. 8, 1897, daughter of William and Minnie McGuire. She attended school at Belmont, Duncan and lower Schooner.

The family moved to Indianapolis after the turn of century where she was employed as a motion picture film inspector for several years. It was during this period that she met and married Oscar Moore of Indianapolis. This was during World War I while Mr. Moore was stationed in the Pacific area.

Following the war, Mr. Moore was employed by a linen supply company and was stationed in Kokomo. He purchased a restaurant and his wife Alpha took over the Weed Patch Sandwich Shop in Kokomo. Both continued to operate their respective businesses until they sold out their holding and retired to Campbell, California about 12 years age.

The Moores visited old friends and relatives in Brown County, Indianapolis and Kokomo last May and attended the 500 Mile Race. On their return to their California home, Mrs. Moore became ill. She entered the Campbell Hospital on March 7th and passed away on the 12th.

She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Mrs. John Bishop and two grandsons; two sisters, Mrs. Alma Durham, Campbell, Calif., and Mrs. Edna Sansone of Indianapolis. Four brothers survive, Lyle McGuire, Indianapolis; Ross McGuire, Tuscon, Ariz., William McGuire, Ben Lemond, Calif., and Hiram McGuire of Nashville, Indiana.

Mrs. Moore and husband were members of the Christian Church of Los Gatos, Calif. Burial was in Oak Hill Memorial Park, California.

Watson Moore 3.951

Watson Moore, aged 77, died December 7 in Singapore after being ill for several years.

Moore, a Brown County native, was born in Schooner Valley on Sept. 18, 1892, to Henry and Lydia Moore.

He married the former Ruth Bowden on June 9, 1921, and left the county some years later for California. There he became a member of the Assembly of God and later became interested in missionary work.

As a missionary, Moore moved to Singapore and then on into Asia, until his health forced him to retire in Honolulu several years ago. Mrs. Moore died there on October 7, 1969.

He resided in Honolulu until a few months ago when he went to live with his daughter, Betty Baker, and her family, who are also missionaries, in Singapore.

Moore is survived by two sons, James, of Susanville, California, and Rudy, of Florida; his daughter, Betty; and a brother, Henry Clayton Moore, of California. He is also survived by seven grandchildren. DEC. 22, 1976

RUTH BOWDEN MOORE

Mrs. Watson T. Moore, formerly Ruth Bowden, died in Honolulu, Hawaii on the 7th of October of heart failure.

The daughter of James J. and Laura May Bowden, she was born on the former Bradley farm, now called Berry farm south of Nashville, January 22, 1902.

She graduated from Nashville High School in 1917 and taught school in Brown County before she married Watson T. Moore in 1921. To this union were born three children, James, of Susanville, Calif.; Rudolph, Commander in U. S. Navy and Betty a missionary in Malaysia.

Two brothers and one sister survive, Robert and Ray Bowden of Nashville and Rachel Parker, Route 2, Morgantown.

Services will be held in Hawaii October 10th. OCT. 4, 1969

Grant Moore

Nathaniel Grant Moore, 76, a former resident of Brown county, died at 2:25 o'clock Monday morning at his home in Columbus. Although he had been in failing health for several years, his condition did not become serious until last week.

Mr. Moore was born in this county on Oct. 11, 1868, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Moore.

For 26 years he was a school teacher in Brown and Bartholomew counties. For the last 36 years he was a resident of Columbus and for 10 years operated a grocery there. In recent years he was employed as a watchman at Noblitt-Sparks Industries.

He was a member of the Red Men's lodge and the Christian church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Francis Moore; a son, Capt. Herbert Moore, and a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Emig, both of Columbus; one brother, Tom, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Routier, both of East Columbus. Two brothers, George and Sherman Moore, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Hathaway funeral home, conducted by Dr. T. K. Smith, of the Columbus Christian church. Burial was made there in Garland Brook cemetery.

JULY 5, 1945

Sherman Moore

Sherman Moore, 72, was fatally injured at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when he stepped or fell against the side of a moving car at Twelfth and Washington streets in Columbus.

Mr. Moore, was on his way to work at the Sugar Creek creamery. The car, a 1935 Chevrolet coupe, was driven by Floyd Starnes. The accident occured as Mr. Moore stepped off the southeast curb of the intersection. His head struck the right windshield post of the car and he fell to the pavement.

He was taken in an ambulance to the county hospital, but lived only a short time. He suffered a fractured skull and abrasions.

The driver was reported going at a low rate of speed at the time of the accident and was not held.

Mr. Moore was born in this county and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Moore.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Jeannettie E. Moore; a daughter, Mrs. Edith David, at home; a son, Earl Moore, of Charlestown, W. Va.; three brothers, Thomas and George of East Columbus and Ray of Columbus, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Routier, of Columbus.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Hathaway funeral home and burial will take place in Garland Brook cemetery in Columbus. NOV. 5, 1942

Thomas Moore

Thomas William Moore, 87, husband of the late Laura Randolph Moore, died at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 15, at the residence of a granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Eddleman, 362 Clifty Drive, Columbus, Indiana.

Until he became seriously ill three weeks ago, he lived in the home he built 50 years ago at 251 Pence Street.

Mr. Moore was born in Brown County May 10, 1874, the son of William O. and Sarah Parker Moore, and spent his early life in Brown County. After moving to Columbus he was employed for 37 years at the Mooney tannery. He was a member of the East Columbus Church of Christ.

Mr. Moore is survived by a son, C. E. Moore of Miles City, Montana; two daughters, Mrs. R. V. Pruitt of South Bend and Mrs. J. C. Nichols of Tampa, Florida; five grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Routier of Columbus. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, three brothers and a daughter.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon (today) at the East Columbus Church of Christ, conducted by the Rev. Porter Wynn. Burial was at Garland Brook cemetery.

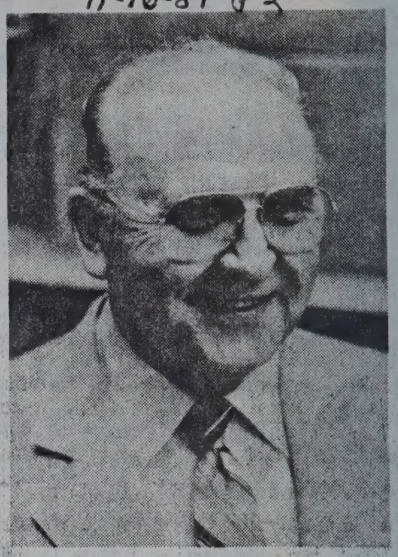
Ed Prasuhn, 71, Longtime Oil Man Here, Succumbs

11-16-89 9-2



EDWIN C. PRASUHN

Ed Prasuhn, 71, of Mt. Vernon, active in Wayne County oil circles here for many years, died at 12:20 a.m. Thursday morning (today), Nov. 16, 1989, at Good Samaritan Regional Health Center in Mt. Vernon.

His death was due to cancer.

Operated Oil Firm

Mr. Prasuhn operated Midwest Oil Producers in Fairfield for many years. He was active in and a past president of the Illinois Oil & Gas Association.

Funeral services will be held from the Faith Lutheran Church in Mt. Vernon at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 18, with Pastor Josepha Lecke officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Vernon Memorial Gardens.

Visitation Set

Visitation will be at the Hughey Funeral Home in Mt. Vernon from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday, and after 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the church.

Edwin Charles, son of Edwin and Christine Muench Prasuhn, was born at St. Louis, Mo., July 27, 1918.

On July 19, 1942, he was married to Lorene Collmeyer. They were longtime residents of Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Prasuhn was a member of Faith Lutheran Church at Mt. Vernon, where he had served as president of the congregation. He was also area representative for the Lutheran Laymen's League.

The Survivors

Surviving are his widow, Lorene; one daughter, Mrs. Karen Wood of Bonnie; and three grandchildren.

CHARLES F. WEAVER

Charles F. (Buck) Weaver, 72, of Centerville, grandfather of Wayne County Press photographer/reporter Bryan Weaver, died at 6:50 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 14, at Carmi Township Hospital.

He had been in the hospital for two weeks with liver and lung problems.

Services Held

Graveside services were at 10:30 a.m. Thursday (today) at Centerville Cemetery. Rev. Wayne Daniel officiated. Kittinger-Fair Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Weaver was born March 5, 1917, in Ellen Dale, N.D. His parents were Charles A. and Jeannie Eunis (Staley) Weaver.

He was retired from the teamsters in Michigan. He worked as a crane operator and truck driver for 40 years in Muskegon, Mich.

Mr. Weaver lived in Centerville in his younger years.

He had returned to live in Centerville two years ago.

The Survivors

Mr. Weaver is survived by two sons, Richard and Martin E. Weaver both of Centerville; two grandsons, Bryan Weaver of Fairfield and Trevor Weaver of Centerville; two sisters, Martha Tripp of Albany, Ore. and Grace Groes of Missouri and one brother, Kenneth Weaver (address unknown).

he established a general merchandising store at Chapel Hill, Ohio, where he remained until 1875, when he moved to New Lexington, Ohio, and continued his business there until the spring of 1881, when he came to Corning Ohio, and established his present business. Mr. Monahan was married February 4, 1873, to Miss Tuce, daughter of James J. and Jane (Sinclair) Wolford, of Roseville, Muskingum county, Ohio. They are the parents of two children, viz.: Jennie Gertrude and John Virgil.

MONAHAN, THOMAS, Pleasant township; post office, Moxahala, Ohio. He has spent the most of his life as an engineer on the railroad, but is now a farmer. He was born in Sligo county, Ireland, March 25, 1848. Son of John and Bridget (O'Gharo) Monahan, both natives of Ireland. He emigrated to this country in 1867, located in Chicago, and worked in a machine shop there. He went on the railroad in 1868, and was fireman on an engine; remained on that road eight months; was then fireman on an engine on the Pan Handle, one year; then he got an engine to run, which position he held until 1873. He then ran a yard engine on the Muskingum Valley, and made an occasional trip on the road. Then he went on the B. & O. R. R. He took a trip West; was assistant engineer at the furnace of the Normal School of Cook county, Illinois; and subsequently ran the engine at the Chicago stock yards, after which he returned to Moxahala and had charge of the iron furnace engine there. He married Mrs. Graham in February, 1878.

MONTGOMERY, J. W., wholesale and retail grocery, Main street, New Lexington, Ohio. Mr. Montgomery was born July 7, 1850, in this place; son of Eli and Rachel Ann (Calhoon) Montgomery. Eli Montgomery was one of the first settlers of this place, and his father a pioneer of the county. In 1868, J. W. Montgomery went to Zanesville, Ohio, and was, for four years, in the employ of the B. & O. R. R. Co. there. In 1872 he returned to this place and established his present business. He was married January 7, 1875, to Miss Mary E., daughter of William and Sophia A. (Thompson) Meloy. They are the parents of three children, viz.: John Rich, Philip Newton and George.

MOONEY, JAMES, weighmaster at W. P. Rend & Co.'s mines, Rendville, Ohio; born July 6, 1856, in Monroe township, Perry county, Ohio; son of Hugh, deceased, and Elizabeth (Bennett) Mooney. His father was a native of Ireland, and his mother of America. He was brought up on the farm until twenty years of age, when he accepted his present position.

MOORE, DANIEL, farmer; post office, Somerset, Ohio; born, 1813, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania; son of William Moore, who came to Perry county in 1817, and deceased in Clayton township, 1819. Daniel's mother was Elizabeth King, who after the death of her husband, resided with her son, to the year 1867, when she died at the age of eighty-three. She was a cousin of Judge King, the first Representative of Perry county in the Ohio Legislature, and died in full fellowship of the Baptist Church. Daniel was married in the year 1837, to Miss Maria Kenard, who died in 1840, leaving an only son, Alvah, and her husband, who has ever since remained a widower. This family of Moores is of Irish-German descent. From his grandfather, Daniel Moore, Sr., Daniel, Jr., received in 1821, the money with which to purchase the land from the government, which he occupied near Straitsville, and which was sold in 1870 to T. J. Maginnis, Esq., at $100 per acre. Mr. Moore, to encourage the railroad, had signed two different contracts, donating the undivided half of the mineral on this one hundred and sixty acre farm, and so earnest and honest was he in this intention that he offered to sign a third contract, when it was supposed that the previous ones were defective. He sold the land by warranty, but held a guarantee from the buyer that no recourse would be had on the seller because of such contracts, should they prove good. In 1863, his son, Alvah, married Miss Anzela Pergon, who is now the mother of Sarah Maria, Mary Alice, William Henry, and Harmar Lewis Moore, all living, and one son deceased. She is a member of the Baptist church, and a lady distinguished for her kindness to the sick, and for her neighborly virtues. Daniel Moore's first vote was cast for Martin Van Buren in 1836, and has been uniformly Democratic since then. He bought the Caywood farm, near Somerset, and in 1881, aided by his son, built a splendid brick dwelling.

Moore, G. W., Justice of the Peace, New Lexington, Ohio; was born May 19, 1822, in Clayton township, this county, son of George and Rachel (Guy) Moore. Mr. Moore was raised upon a farm and followed farming until he was eighteen years of age, when he went to the wool-carding trade, which he followed for six years; at first engaging with Law & Carroll, near New Lexington, with whom he continued three years; was one year at Oakfield and two years in Hocking county, Ohio, where he started a carding machine of his own, continuing as above stated, when he sold out and again went to farming, which he continued four years. In 1850, he moved into Harrison township, this county, where he lived two years and was engaged in the stone quarry business; from there he went to Saltillo, where he lived until 1862, engaged in the boot and shoe business. During the time he lived in Clayton township he served nearly eighteen years as Justice of the Peace. He moved to Uniontown in 1862, where he kept hotel two years, and again returned to Saltillo, where he lived when he was elected County Recorder, in October of 1874, and moved to New Lexington in December of same year, where he lived until September, of 1882, having been re-elected at the expiration of his first term of office, and served six years in all. In September, of 1881, he was elected Justice of the Peace in New Lexington, and continued in that office until September, 1882, when he moved to within two miles of that place, on the road leading to Somerset, where he purchased eighty acres of land. Mr. Moore was married October 8, 1845, to Harriet, daughter of Jacob and Catharine (Burley) Richards, of Harrison township, this county. They are the parents of seven children, viz.: Rachel Catharine, James Madison, deceased, at eight months; Jacob Richards, Jesse Heber, Edward Elbridge, Alvah Franklin and Etta Lizzie. Mr. Moore's father was one of the first settlers of Clayton township, he and two of his brothers entering one hundred and sixty acres of land each in section No. 12, where he lived and died, September 20, 1845, at about seventy-two years of age. When he entered this land their nearest neighbor, except those brothers in that section, for they all entered at the same time, was five miles distant. He

I toured some of the archaeological sites there, (NM) visited some friends, then camped for awhile at Dolores/Mesa Verde, Cololorado until it started snowing. (I worked there several years ago). Thought I would dry out down South, but was greeted by thunder, lightning, and downpours! (After a summer of rain in Washington too)!

Right now I am working for a federally funded weatherization program with a transfer to Tillamook, Oregon on 1 Jan. 1983 if I want it. I am also still accepted by the Peace Corps for service beginning after the first of the year too. My family isn't particularly fond of the idea of letting me go to "Africa" for 2 years - so it's a tough decision that I am struggling with.

I am hoping to organize some kind of "Methodical" Research on my missing persons this November/December. Wish me luck!

Do you have the More/Moore's from the 1860 ~~Monroe~~ Perry Co. Ohio? I jotted them down - If they would be of any benefit to you? By the time I got to Monroe Co. (1860) I just about gave up on the Moore's. I copied down one:

Census

Malga Twp; Monroe Co., Ohio 1850, page 66	William Moore	- 62	farmer	born Ireland
	Elizabeth	- 64		born Ireland
	John	- 24		born Ohio
	Mathew	- 20		born Ohio

This is all that I have for you right now (It is a pretty meager exchange). Will keep in touch with anything I think may be of assistance to you. Thank You so much.

Very Sincerely - Gwen

Ulrich Keller's estate notice - John Yenni, administrator

August 25, 1852
Obituary - died at his residence on Sunfish in this county on Thurs. 12th inst. at half past 10 o'clock in the 79th year of his age, the Hon. John Jones. His first settlement was made in Licking County near Newark. Here he remained until the choice of his youth and sharer of his perils was called to a brighter world in 1805 he again took a partner (here my notes did not have a period so I don't know whether the first wife died in 1805 or he married again in 1805) and removed to Bull Creek, Virginia and after a short time removed to Proctor. The second partner died in 1843 and in 1846 he married Miss Deborah Boswort.

Died on Thursday, the 19th, Robt. W. aged 12 years and on Sunday the 22nd, Sarah Ellen aged 4 years, children of Wm. Sinclair of Adams Township.
Died in Antioch on Friday last, Lelilia, wife of Henry Johnson
Died on Sunday last James Franklin, son of Arthur and Nancy Okey, aged 2 years 5 mos. 5 days.
Died on Wed. the 18th of dysentery, Mary Jane dau. of Wm. and Margaret Henthorn of this place aged 1 year, 3 mos. 11 days.
Died in this place on the same day of dysentery, Madison son of Marshal and Sarah Morrow aged 2 months, 11 days.
Died in this place on Monday last the 23rd, Margaret Ellen daughter of Mary and John Liniger aged about 10 months.
Died on Sunday last near this place of dysentery Arthur McKeown, aged about 74 years.

Notice in Partition: Wm. Raper, John M. Raper, Holly W. Raper, Elizabeth Lewis and John D. Lewis, her husband; Joseph Tuel, Mianda Tuel, Susanna Tuel, and John Tuel will take notice that a petition was filed against them by Robert Raper on the 19th of August for partition of 80 acres in S.34, T.1, R.4 and 40 acres in S.34, T.1, R.4

Hannah Moore vs. Rebecca Moore, Charles Moore, Thomas Moore, Keziah Moore and her husband Wm. Moore; Elizabeth Pitman and her husband Thomas Pitman, Rachel Pitman and her husband Elias Pitman, John Moore, Barbara Moore and Benjamin Melott, assignee of Timothy Moore and Isaac Moore - petitions for widow's dower to be set off to her land in S.27, T.4, R.4

Notice in Partition - Mary Smith, John Smith, Riley Smith, Aaron Smith, Basil Smith, Zachariah Smith, David Smith, Eliza Cronin and Aaron Cronin her husband, Sarah Blazer and Benjamin Blazer her husband, Mary Smith, Jr., Rachel Smith and Rebecca Smith, heirs of Basil Smith - suit filed against them by Andrew Smith for partition of land in S.21, T.5, R.6 (my note - this Andrew Smith did not waste any time in filing for a share of his father's property - Basil Smith only died on the 10th of August - see the issue of Aug. 18th.)

Dear Shirley,

Your letter was written three months ago! I always finally answer my corrospondence. I was about to leave for Indiana when your letter came, and I didn't get back until the middle of August. I was gone nearly all summer. And every time I picked up your letter this last month, I put it down to study it some more. The More's are hard to work up.

I may have mentioned that I have a little history written in the 1940's, largely by interview. So the information regarding the family living at Staunton in Augusta has not been proved. I sure find a lot of More/Moore families in the area; mostly Moore. Some were Quakers and some were Germans as well as the scoth-irish ones. There were Moore's inter-married with the Walkers of Augusta, and there's a book on these Walkers, but nothing much on the Moore family. It is "John Walker of Wigton." These people were originally quakers, but apparently dropped it. In fact, I find a lot on Quaker Moore's, rather that a lot were quakers in the early days. There's an Andrew Moore, who was a quaker, and there's a book on him. He lived in Penna. Then, there's the Andrew Moore family to Virginia from New Jersey, and I think this is my group, but sure can't prove it. This Andrew had a number of sons, and his wife was a Baxter. There were a number of sons, but I only have the wives of a few of them, and then this all gets hazy as the counties were changed around.

There was a Philip Moore family living in the Augusta area, and he was a German. I have bits and pieces on this family, but I can't fit my Johns into it. The story in my little history is, that my John More Sr. came over from Germany, but that he was scotch-irish, but was, for some reason in Germany, probably because of religious reasons. That's all there is. I have never heard that any of them in Ohio and Indiana spoke German.

I can't remember what I told you about my trip to Miami Co., Ohio. I found nothing on my John in the county records, and wonder if actually his land was in Montgomery Co. as he lived around Tipp City. When I was there, I found a Henry Moore, and his heirs listed, and Samuel Moore and his heirs listed, and the only other information I found was a few burials. (The cemeteries have not all been read.) There was a Jacob Moore who died in 1865 age 78 years, his wife being Isabella, and he was the oldest one except for a Hannah Moore, wife of Caleb, and mother of William Reeder who died in 1855 age 84. So, all of these Moore's were too young to be parents or Uncles of my John in Miami Co. Henry Moore's estate was in 1855, He had as heirs:

Hiram
Susan Stahl
Samuel
Mary Marlin
Margaret Cassell (she was dec'd)

Dear Shirley,

Behind as usual. Just one of those years. Now Mom is in the hospital with heart problems. We both have our mothers, so I guess it will be that way til the end.

Thanks for what you sent on Marion Co., Iowa, and the Moore family. I feel that the John More family is mine. I just don't have enough on them to make the connection. Supposedly mine were in Augusta before Ohio. But Monongalia was part of Augusta in the early times; at least at the time they were supposed to be there. I supposed the different brothers ranged around. My little More History, taken from remembrances says that there were 13 brothers and one sister. Maybe, but with traditions, there are always the errors. Usually the stories are so garbled, that you can't do a thing with them. This is one of them. I can find only a smidging on the Moore family in Miami Co., Ohio. Think I will find something more on them in the Montgomery Co. records. Some of the records in that part of Virginia were burned in the Civil War. So, don't know if much can be found. And, too, some of the records for that region were taken to Williamsburg, or Richmond, I think. I haven't found the Yohogania records yet. (current Washington Co., Penna.). Virginia claimed the area, and they kept the records. I went down there and found very little. The records in that region of Penna. are not like the regions in the Eastern Penna. area. So, not much to go on.

I really appreciate this information. Each little bit helps. I think my line is John, son of John More. In other words, John brother to Phillip More. His wife, according to my history was Sophiah Cake. There were Cake's in that region, and about the time of the Rev. War they fled to Canada; were Royalists. Not much on them, so can't do much with that one either. My Gandy family were in the area of course, and the Gandy mother was a Combs, and I do find some things on them in the area. I am sure this is the place to work.

I didn't get back to Perry Co., but stopped in Licking Co., this summer. Their Clerk's records burned about 1864 or so. The deeds are O.K. I didn't try for Moore's; in fact forgot about that. The Beard information was sketchy due to the fact there were no wills for the time I was looking. I made a couple of other stops-to Fairfield Co. and to Chilicothe. I seem to be following a humungous family of Beards!!! I don't know who the Jonathan Beard was who was born 1820 in Franklin, Va. My brother, the baptist preacher, moved to Jefferson, Iowa. He is collecting all he can find on Beard/Baird families. Maybe one day, we will get it. But in both cases, I have John's. Several of my families are common names, even for those olden times--Thomas James, William Hughes, John Hughes, James Lee, John Walker!!! I could kill them, but they are already dead. Ha! Ha!

Thanks so much. I hope you make some progress. I sure haven't.

Some of the records in that part of Virginia were burned in the Civil War. So, don't know if much can be found. And, boo, some of the records for that region were taken to Williamsburg, or Richmond, I think. I haven't found the Volongania records yet. (courtesy Washington Co., Penna.). Virginia claimed the area, and they kept the records. I went down there and found very little. The records in that region of Penna. are not like the regions in the East in Penna. Area. So, not much to go on.

I really appreciate this information. Each little bit helps. I think my line is John, son of John More. In other words, John brother to Phillip More. His wife, according to my history was Sophia Cake. There were Cake's in that region, and about the time of the Rev. War they fled to Canada; were Royalists. Not much on them, so can't do much with that one either. My Canby family were in the area of course, and the Canby mother was a Cooke, and I do find some things on them in the area. I am sure this is the place to work.

I didn't get back to Perry Co., but stopped in Licking Co., this summer. Their Clerk's records burned about 1864 or so. The deeds are O.K. I didn't try for Moore's; in fact forgot about them. The Beard information was sketchy due to the fact there were no wills for the time I was looking. I made a couple of other stops to Fairfield Co. and to Chillicothe. I seem to be following a humongous family of Beards!!! I don't know who the Tennessee Beard was who was born 1810 in Franklin, Va. My brother, the genius preacher, moved to Jefferson, Iowa. He is out getting all he can find on Beard/Baird families. Maybe one day, we will get it. But in both cases, I have John's. Several of my families are common names, even for those olden times--Thomas Jones, William Hughes, John Hughes, James Lee, John Walker!!! I could kill them, but they are already dead. Ha! Ha!

Thanks so much. I hope you make some progress. I sure haven't.

Best Beard Wishes

Dear Shirley,

Your letter came a week after I received the parents of William Rambo from Charles L. Moore of Hillsdale, MI (see notes for address). The interesting part is that he has been searching Moores and Hatfields in Perry Co. , Ohio ! I don't know if birth records are available, but they should be in Newton Twp, Muskingum Co. Ohio and that would be proof of William and Solomon being brothers. The 1850 census showed George b. 1777 Pa and Mary b. 1780 Pa. both in Clay Twp , Muskingum. The 1820 census shows the age groupings could be these boys, but doesn't seem to include Solomon. Later census shows Solomon b. ca 1821(1860 Cen).

Thank you for the information - every little bit helps. I would like to know how it fits it, and information on the Rambos. Tell Gwen these Rambos are very ilusive, but I feel we are getting nearer all the time. Will keep you posted if there is a breakthru that I know about. The fact that they were in Perry Co. helps. Wm stayed there, Moses went to Hocking Co, Jefferson Twp. and John want back to Muskingum. Henry and George were both potters in Muskingum.

Do hope to hear from you again,
Sincerely,

Marjory Rambo

Dear Shirley,

Yes – I am back in the wonderful U.S.; freezing in my little cabin with 2 wood stoves and 7 roof leaks! As are most Peace Corps assignments currently in the E.C. being terminated, I decided against reassignment and 27 more months duty. So I have been "home" exactly 2 weeks today. Hope that your weather has warmed up and you are warmer than I am feeling?

For the Rambo researchers, my mom sent me the attached copy from a Rambo newsletter. (Source on reverse of the page). If anyone can make the connection to George Rambo (b. 15 June 1777) .... Charles Moore, or Marjory Rambo? We can try the Probate Judge in Muskingum Co. for birth, death, burial and probate?

I couldn't resist haunting the Archives again, since it is so close, and took another "last chance" at Rebecca Eddy on the 1870 Brown Co., Indiana census. (Wife of John Rambo). My persistence through all those faded copies, paid off — I am thrilled to have finally found her! Is anyone that you know of interested in this bit of census information?

Question: have you done any research on the William Moore listed on page 15 of the 1860 Perry Co., Ohio census? (Madison Twp.).

Or the Sarah Moore, Madison, Perry Co., p. 15, line 29? These seem like good possibilities, or have they been eliminated? (With my reference material back-in-hand I have all these little notes to wonder about when inspiration is out to lunch).

When I get organized and adjusted I will take time to get some ~~reasc~~ research done in a more proper manner. In the meantime I did want to pass this on for the Rambo researchers if they don't have it yet. Hope you are getting the Moores sorted out?

Will write later.

Most Sincerely,
Gwen

Dear Shirley,

Yes - I am back in the wonderful U.S. Jumping into my little cabin with 2 wood stoves and 4 key heaters! On one wood fire (one compartment accurately on the E.O. burning temperature), 6 decided opposed temperament and 23 more interesting stuff. So 4 hours been "there" regarding 2 weeks today. Hope that there wasn't too much wasted up and you can't blame them "Jam packing"?

To the Florida Association, will there send me the attached copy from a Florida newsletter. (Source and Address at the page). If anyone can make the connection to George Florida (b 15 June 1777) ... Charles Pierce, or Mayfield Florida? We can try the Indiana Judge in Mississippi Co. for birth, death, burial and photos?

I couldn't resist inserting the Orabona copy since it is so close, and that remarkable last chance at Osborn Eddy on the 1870 Brown Co. Indiana census. (Wife & John Florida). My associations through our three Florida copies paid off — I am thrilled to have finally found them.

Is anyone that you have contacted on this list giving information?

Question: have you also ever research on the Wilson Wilcox listed on page 15 of the Ohio Pioneer? (Madison Twp).

On the South Illinois, Madison, Evansville p. 15 - Jim 94? Their name like dead possibilities or have they been eliminated? (Need any reference Medical Death and Burial? I have one there. Little trips to records about which counties to visit to search).

When I get organized and adjusted I want to take time to get more research done on a more proper manner. In the Mountains I did about to focus this on for the Florida researches if they don't show it yet. Hope you are getting the Illinois sorted out?

Will write later.

Yours Sincerely,

(Jane)

Dear Shirley,

I'm way behind as usual, and I'm leaving Christmas day for Florida, so I will be even further behind. We are going for two weeks so that Ray can get some needed rest. He has been working so hard the last three years, and time is catching up with him.

I wish I had something more to send you. I do have lots of odds and ends of Moore information, some of it from Virginia, but no connections. If you will outline what you have for Virginia, I can make copies of what you don't have an (send to you.

The only new information I have that you may not have is:

send for

Daniel Moore - Will; Ohio Co., Virginia 1842 (don't have though) Book 3 Page 432.

I have no clue that any of More/Moore's went to Brown Co., Ind., but since there were supposedly 12 brothers, and only John's brothers Henry and Samuel are known, there could have been.

There are a lot of errors in the Horn Papers, they say. They say that he took people who only had initials and added names for them with no proof. I don't know, but there's a lot of information in his papers. And when one is working on Moore---

Samuel More, the brother was supposed to have been with George Rogers Clark, and John (the youngest child born 1772) was supposed to have been with Anthony Wayne at Fort Wayne, Indiana. I find it increasing difficult to prove anything with More/Moore. Col Lochrey had a group of men he recruited in what is now Washington Co., Pa. that were supposed to have been part of Gen. Clark's outfit. They were on their way down the Ohio River to meet up with Clark, and they were way-laid by the Indians, and about half of them killed, and the others taken to Montreal as prisoners. My 3rd grandpa Thomas James was allegedly one of them. But he escaped it appears. And the George Rogers Clark papers do not include this bunch, and probably because it was a black mark on Clark as he didn't wait for this group, and this group didn't have enough food and ammunition to protect themselves. So, I don't believe that the Clark lists are complete. There are no complete lists of the Rev. War men.

The article from the Tri County Researcher on the partition of the counties in (now W.Va.) from Ohio Co. is very formative, and I will study it further. I think Ohio Co. is a place to search as there was a John More there in 1776, and he is probably mine. I believe the More's to have moved further North from the Staunton area, as John Jr. was in Monongalia 1799 to 1806 at least. John Sr. died on the wilderness road on the way to Kentucky with his daughter to visit one of the sons (don't know who though). I think he was taken back home to die, but one person has him buried by the trail. The story we got was that he broke his leg when the brakes gave way, and died later.

The Israel Moore, born 1843 appears to have been one of my group. It is written in my little history that John More was born Germany to Scotch-Irish parents; not known why they were in Germany unless it was for religious reasons. Hard to swallow though as I have never heard of any of them speaking German. It is even said that my John Beard was German, but still gr. grandfather did not speak German, and he would have. Things can sure get mixed up as they are told down through the generations. In reading further, the description of this Isreal - it doesn't fit my group. My More family had black very curly hair, and they were tall people. I can remember running the comb through my grandpa Beard's hair and it was very curly. But I never got acquainted with any of the More's in the area. I have a picture of the More/Murphy Reunion, and my Aunt can pick out some of them. A Murphy married one of the More girls. This Alexander Murphy ran a still, and my gr.granpa Beard ran it for him. Gr. Grandpa John Beard was 6ft. 7 in. Doesn't sound like a German does it? Also it is said in the little history I have that the Beard/More/Murphy group formed a clan and that it exhisted still in the 1940's when this was written. Sounds more like a Scotch-Irish group to me.

In your second note, you included a page copy from the "District of West Augusta, Virginia." Thanks for it too. The thing is, where are the records for West Augusta???? I still haven't found out. Supposedly they are separate from Washington Co., Penna., and probably in Virginia someplace. Do you know where?

Since I am still trying to get caught up, and don't know what to send you, I will await your list of Moore families. Then I will copy of some I have. I know there were Moore's that were related to the Walkers in Augusta, and these were of the John Walker of Wigton, Scotland family. I have been following them also. Then there was the Philip Mohr family, of the German varieta. There was the Moore's store group that were Quakers; Thomas Moore being the progenitor of this group. Then there was the Andrew Moore family who bought land from a man in New Jersey who had the land in Augusta via patent. Then there were the Culpepper Moore's. There was a Robert Moore from Ireland who went to Washington Co., Penna. He's too young to be of my group. Also there were Moore's in the Washington area who were from Cumberland Co., Penna. They were intermarried with another Beard/Baird family of the Ohio Co. area. It sure gets confusing. There was a large Moore family in New Jersey, but I can't bring them down into the 1800's. I know a person who has studied them some, but with Moore???

I will await your reply. I do apologize for being so tardy. I'm returning the dollar. I don't know what it was for. My copies to you are for free. You have sent me too much now, but I hope to return the favor. We will work further on this. Just this last summer I decided to see if I could prove the information in the little history since it has no proof included, and very little references. Likely we will be of the same large group. I hope so. I would like to find some long lost cousins.

Thanks so much for writing, and I will await your next letter. After this next trip, I should get all caught up. I won't travel anymore until April. I've made 8 trips this year.

Merry Christmas!

Ethel

Dear Shirley,

Well, I had a busy summer too, too busy to do any corrospondence. I am just getting to it. I made 5 trips. But didn't have time to go to the Fort Wayne Libr.

I can't find my Perry County information now, and have looked all over, but by reading your letter over, do remember some about it. I stopped in Zanesville this last trip and worked a little while. I found that the Moore family there appear to be the same family as the Robert Moore family, Irish immigrant to Wash. Co., Penna. Of course, as usual, they were involved with the Beard/Baird families in Muskegum Co. There were at least 5 different families of Beard/Baird/Bayard in Muskegum, and I didn't find my John and Sophiah More Beard either. Distressing.

You mention a Downey. Did I ever ask you about them? I have a Downey, and I have nothing on her--a Molly Downey born about 1740-50 who married Thomas James and I find them first living in Washington Co., Penna. from 1782 to 1792 when they sold their land. They are missing in 1800, so don't know for sure where they were. Thomas James was a common name then, and hard to follow.

Regarding the Mormon films. They are not near as complete as they lead you to believe. And if you are working the Penna. records, you need to do it in person. Each county records their records their own way, and unless you get a handle on how they do it, you won't find everything. That is what I am finding out, anyway. I have learned very little through their records. My people did not join their church, and they have nothing on them.

I am so far behind, that I may never get caught up. We may be going to Florida around the first of the year for several months, and I won't be able to take much with me, except this tiny portable. The big typewriter is in the shop. I hate this, but must get used to it for it is all I will have in Florida.

I will look forward to hearing from you again. Perhaps you should search the West Virginia records. We may have the same group of Mores.

Sincerely,

Ethel Beard Simons

February 29, 1984!

Dear Shirley,

It's leap year day. I have two letters from you in February, and in both you included some good information. Thanks very much.

I'm sorry to say, I haven't anything more to add on the More family. I feel that that Philip More family was related to my group, and possibly your group. Especially the German connection.

I feel definitely that there is a Perry Co., Ohio connection. I have been following various Beard families, of course, since my Beard married a More. When I was in Carlisle last October, I saw some information about a Beard in Tyrone Twp., and that Twp., ended up in Perry Co., Penna. I have got to go to Perry Co. to sort this out. Anyway, there was a John Beard younger brother to a David Beard and we are pretty sure John had a brother David who was older than he was. We find those names in Perry Co., Ohio in the 1820 Census. So, I have also got to work with the Perry Co., Ohio records to see if they came from Penna. I will have to do it with the process of elimination.

The Murphy family who intermarried into the More family were rumored to be from Allegany Co., Maryland. I found that marriage in Miami Co., Ohio, but didn't see any other Murphy's there. However I didn't check the Deed records for Murphy's. We found several of them in the Darke Co., Ohio records, but don't know who Alexander Murphy's parents were, so can't do much with that one.

I don't have anymore records here I can check for these families. I have already been through all of the periodicals and county histories, and census done previously. I will need to go to West Virginia in person as I can't get to the Fort Wayne library. Everyone tells me it is sure good. My Aunt is over 100 miles from it, and the trip back and forth would take a good part of the day or night, and it would take many trips to get much information. Usually it takes one several trips to acquaint themself with the library. If there is a guide for the library I would like to purchase one. I know they sell them, but I don't have the information to order one. Let me know what one costs and the size, etc. and I will send you a check and it can be mailed book class. If you find this unhandy, that's O.K. Just forget it, then. If I knew how to use the library, it would help me to go there a couple of times and get something worthwhile. I go to Indiana twice a year and could spend a little time there on each trip. My grandchildren; that is 3 of them live in Indiana.

I hope your husband's eyes are better. Ray has been having heart problems, but is better now with the medication. My problems stay the same, but I can live with them.

In your letter received 27 Feb. containing census information for Penna. My John More died in Miami Co. Ohio 13 June 1841. So, he wasn't one of the John More/Moore's in Greene Co., Penna. I think some of them very likely are related to my group and yours.

Dear Mrs Bedient:

It was interesting to learn of your Truax-ex connections.

I am enclosing copies of the pages describing Benjamin, Mary & Solomon, and House of TRUAX which has some of the early history in N.Y.C.

Mrs Hires continued with descendants E5 to E12, but not Solomon Moore in Vol I which is available for $30 + 3 from C Butterfield Secretary.

Benjamin & Eleanor Cramer were ancestors of the late actor Ernest Truex. Ernest's father was a doctor in Kansas, & "Ernie" learned acting from an ailing Chataqua player who gave the lessons as payment for the Dr's treatment.

We might have more on Moore" in our central files which are accessible to members of the Philippe Dutrieux Assoc.

We would be pleased to have you as a member.

According to Orville Foreman, R.1 Box 406, Corning, Cal 976021
Michael More settled in Bellville, Ohio, c 1800.
More was a German name - then changed to Moore.
Elizabeth More married Dan Stuckey in 1861 in Brown County.
These were Orville's grandparents.
He also thought Soloman Moore - married to Sarah Truex - might be a brother to Saloma More Truex.

Dear Sir:

I am searching for a will or probate record for a William More/Moore who died in your county in 1817. William More/Moore died leaving minor children, so the probate record may be a guardianship for these children. He had one son, Daniel, and I'm anxious to learn if my second great grandmother, Saloma More Truex, was another child.

If these records are not available in your county, please advise where they may be located. Enclosed please find a check for $4.00 to cover the cost of copies, if available.

Very truly yours,

Shirley J. Hannaford
